Imposition of Ashes

(During the final hymn, Rev. Vaders and Rev. Tobiassen will offer the imposition of ashes. In this ritual, worshippers receive the mark of the cross on their foreheads. The cross is drawn in ashes as a reminder of our mortality, as well as an invitation to penitence during the season of Lent. We invite all who wish to receive the ritual to come forward to either pastor as we sing The Church of Christ.)

Postlude: We Pray Now to the Holy Spirit.....

T. Nun bitten wir den heiligen Geist Dietrich Buxtehude (1637-1707)

We are grateful for your presence at this Ash Wednesday Day of Prayer and are blessed to share in worship with the Rev. Nancy Johnson Vaders.

Rev. Nancy Johnson Vaders is Deacon and Director of Outreach at St. Paul’s Episcopal Church, where she began serving in 2018. She had previously been a hospital and hospice chaplain for over a decade before joining the staff and clergy at St. Paul’s. She completed her undergraduate work at the University of Tennessee and her M.Div. at Duke University in 2006. She attended Salem Academy for high school and is familiar with Home Church from that time.

Sarah Love Taylor, mezzo-soprano, is presenting our special music today. Her operatic credits include the title role in Carmen, Cherubino in Le Nozze di Figaro, The Mother in Amahl and the Night Visitors, and Ruth in The Pirates of Penzance. Also a passionate singer of oratorio, Sarah has appeared as a guest artist with Durham Symphony Orchestra, Choral Society of Durham, Greensboro Oratorio Society, Concert Singers of Cary, Guilford College Choir, and Roanoke College Choir.

She earned her BM and BA (French) from UNC-Chapel Hill and her MM and DMA from UNC-Greensboro. Sarah serves on the voice faculty at Greensboro College and is a choral scholar at St. Timothy's Episcopal Church. Sarah is also an alumna of Salem Academy and has fond memories of Baccalaureate services at Home Church.

The flowers are placed in the Sanctuary today to the glory of God and in loving honor of Moravian women of the Unity who serve our Lord, share his message and work toward the fulfillment of his Kingdom around the world.

We are grateful to Jonathan Williams, Home Church organist, for providing special music; Chris Puryear and the Hospitality Committee for the delightful reception; Katherine Petree, Martha Shaffner and Jill Sear for the beautiful flowers; Becky Hodges and Corey Williams for nursery attendance; and David Holston for providing ushers. Peggy Dodson provided invaluable help with the planning of the service.
